Dear Kirchentag participants,

A warm welcome to the 37th German Protestant Kirchentag in Dortmund 2019.

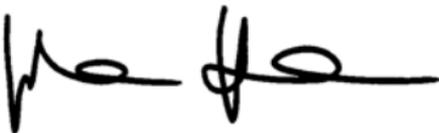

Your expectations, your joyful anticipation and your confidence have been an inspiration to the whole Kirchentag Team. And now you are here! You are browsing through the programme and discovering things that may be familiar, surprising, inspiring or important. You can either search specifically for the things you are hoping to find or let yourself drift through at random. Trust yourself to discover things that at first may seem strange or unfamiliar. You can have confidence in all of the many events that are waiting for you!

Dortmund is looking forward to seeing you. The city and the Evangelical Church of Westphalia have both been waiting a long time for a Kirchentag. Dortmund itself has only hosted the Kirchentag once before, in 1963. Then in 1991 Dortmund was part of the Kirchentag in the Ruhr. Now at last it is here again. This is a place of transformation, full of “true love” (the slogan of Borussia Dortmund!) which has been making lots of preparations to welcome you.

There many participatory activities on offer, especially with regional projects for sport and transformation. Every Kirchentag has a common thread running through it: this year the focus is on migration, integration and recognition. Plenty of other things are also dear to our hearts. “What confidence is this” – the theme has been a key part of our preparations. At so many levels trust and confidence seem to have been lost, or deliberately misused, or undermined. Familiar sets of rules and hitherto trustworthy institutions and systems have been called into question, and the future looks confusing. What should we do, how should we respond, how can we be actively involved in shaping our world, and not just react to things or blank out what is difficult and challenging? We will try to answer these questions in Dortmund at this Kirchentag, where the challenges are right on our doorstep. At the same time, the opportunities are evident. Together let us search for answers – and find them. What confidence is this – shouldn’t this end with an exclamation mark or a question mark? The biblical story in the Second Book of Kings keeps the ambivalence open. It keeps the idea of confidence open. It is a war-time story with no simple solution. Realistic and inconclusive. King Hezekiah can only lose, his opponent has the upper hand, his coalition partners either self-serving or weak, his people no longer knowing what to believe and he himself very insecure. Yet one thing he does know: God is faithful and God will point the way. He holds firmly to this and it changes everything.

We can also have hope and confidence that this change will happen – at and through this Kirchentag. May this be a place of transformation and the Good News. We wish you all a wonderful Kirchentag.

With warm wishes

Prof. Dr. Julia Helmke
General Secretary of the German Protestant Kirchentag

8 INTRODUCTION

This booklet includes practical information and gives details of events of particular interest to international visitors. It would be impossible to translate the whole programme book, but we draw attention here to sessions with:

- International speakers
- Interpretation into English (from German and other languages)
- In English
- Other major events of particular significance or interest.

Events with interpretation

The Kirchentag provides simultaneous interpretation at some events. These are listed in this booklet with special symbols as shown on page ► 12. Please allow enough time before the session begins to collect your headphones. You will be asked to leave your Kirchentag admission pass as a deposit for headphones. If you want to attend an event without interpretation you can ask at the International Centre for a volunteer language steward to go with you. They do not give a full simultaneous translation but will give you a summary of what is said.

International Centre (Internationales Zentrum/IZ)

The International Centre (IZ) is open from Tuesday 18 June to Saturday 22 June from 09.00–20.00 and is the meeting point for international participants and their hosts. The IZ team is available throughout the Kirchentag to offer help with any questions or problems in a variety of languages. There is also a cafe where you can take a break and meet up with other participants and with the members of the International Committee of the Kirchentag. Other services offered at the IZ include daily prayers in different languages and rooms for discussion or meetings. The IZ is located at:

M Kongresszentrum, EG, Number One, Bereich Westfalahallen, Innenstadt-West (634•E3)

Tel: +49 231 99768-515

E-Mail international@kirchentag.de

International Reception Desk (Teilnehmendenservice Ausland) This is where international visitors need to go for their Kirchentag pass, programme folder, and information about accommodation if not received in advance. The International Reception Desk is open from Tuesday 18 June to Saturday 22 June from 08.00–23.00 and is located at:

M Kongresszentrum, EG, Number One, Bereich Westfalahallen, Innenstadt-West (634•E3)

International welcome and information session

Wednesday 19 June at 19.00. This is a special welcome session for international participants directly after the Opening Service at location. Find out more about Kirchentag and meet other people who speak your language, including members of the International Committee.

C Reinoldinum, 2. OG, Großer Saal, Schwanenwall 34, Innenstadt-West (464•a2)

Changes to the programme

The Kirchentag is such a big event that it is impossible to avoid some last-minute changes to the programme. Updates are available during the Kirchentag itself:

- at the International Centre and International Reception Desk
- in the daily Kirchentag newspaper (German only)
- on the Kirchentag website www.kirchentag.de (German only)
- on the Kirchentag-app (German only)

Hall full (Halle überfüllt)

There will be times when the venues are full to capacity and people have to be turned away for health and safety reasons. Even if there appears to be some space left, please respect the Halle überfüllt signs and understand why you are turned away by the stewards. This is the only way to ensure the smooth and safe running of all the events at the Kirchentag. Thank you.

Stewards

Around 5,000 stewards work at the Kirchentag, taking responsibility for events. These volunteers, mostly young people from church youth organisations and scout groups, are easily recognisable by their colourful lch helfe scarves. They help to prepare venues, give information, keep order, distribute headsets and much more, doing work which would otherwise have to be done by paid staff. Sometimes stewards find themselves under pressure in difficult situations, such as when they have to refuse entry to events that are full, or when they are in charge of left luggage. They need the support of Kirchentag visitors and appreciation for the service they give.

Environment

The Kirchentag seeks to be the most environmentally-friendly large event of its kind and has held the European EMAS certificate for over ten years. The aim is to do everything possible to reduce energy consumption and to be careful with precious resources like water and food. As Kirchentag participants you are asked to play your part, for instance using public transport or bicycles. Please avoid unnecessary waste and sort your rubbish into the right bins. See also “Meals / Glass restaurant” and “Organic food market” in the A to Z section.

Bible studies

Every day has its own Bible text, related to the theme. People from all walks of life interpret the Bible, often relating the texts to their own life and work. Bible studies are a key part of the Kirchentag and no other events go on at the same time.

Celebratory communion services (Feierabendmahl)

The celebratory communion service has taken place on the Friday evening at the Kirchentag for over thirty years. Hosts and guests come together and celebrate a special communion service, get to know each other and exchange experiences.

Community singing with the Kirchentag song book

Take an active break at lunchtime: breathe deeply and sing. It will do wonders for your voice, mind and heart. Singing is led by musicians, choirs and bands. Explore the hidden depths of the song book.

Daytime prayers

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday there are prayers in the morning, midday and evening. These happen at various venues and also in local parishes around the city. This provides the liturgical heartbeat of the Kirchentag and is an opportunity to take a regular break for contemplation.

Market of opportunities

The market of opportunities is at the heart of the Kirchentag and over the years has developed into a vital meeting place for groups working in church and society. Around 800 groups present their projects, both large and small. Here you will find information as well as opportunities for discussion, networking and building new contacts. A map and the topic areas are shown on page ▶ 66.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday 10.30–18.30

Contributors (Mitwirkende)

About half of the Kirchentag participants are actively involved in making the programme happen: as planning groups, brass band players, singers and speakers, in concerts, worship services, theatre and cabaret performances and running stalls in the market of opportunities. Not only Christians are invited to do this work, but also those from other religions and none. All who care about society and dialogue are welcome.

Have your say – Kirchentag as a platform for discussion

Kirchentag participants are invited to have their say and express their opinions. This can be done in the formal sessions via the spokespersons for the audience, or directly using the hall microphones, by taking part in live votes or through digital participation. You will find formats such as simulation games, workshops, world cafés and 'BarCamps'. The Kirchentag also offers opportunities to participate on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. More information is given in the A-Z section under the headings Website and Social Media.

Join in – everyone should be able to come

Accessibility is the key to wider participation. Everyone should be able to attend. This includes people in wheelchairs, those with sensory impairment or with learning difficulties, and anyone who faces obstacles to their desire to participate. The Kirchentag seeks to be open for everyone, diversity is an enrichment and a gift. This is one of the challenges of inclusivity. Everyone should be accepted as an individual as part of the whole community. The Kirchentag tries to set an example, enable all to participate as fully and in as many places as possible.

Focus on migration, integration, recognition

Society and churches are becoming more diverse, with more and more people from different backgrounds and viewpoints. This represents a rich resource as well as a task for the coming years. The Kirchentag welcomes this development and is addressing the issue of migration. The Dortmund Kirchentag will therefore have a common thread of migration, integration and recognition running through the whole programme.

The German idiom for such a recurring theme is “red thread” (Roter Faden), so these events are marked in red in the programme, under the heading “Focus on migration, integration, recognition”

One of the main panels will mark the launch of the “red thread” focus:

Belonging – what does it mean?

Migration is when everyone has to move

► 33

Rev Dr h.c. Annette Kurschus, Praeses of the Evangelical Church of Westphalia, supports and accompanies the focus on migration, integration, recognition.

For people with disabilities

The Kirchentag tries to ensure that its venues are accessible, with no steps, and any ramps have a maximum slope of 6%. Doors have a minimum width of 90 cm, lifts a minimum depth of 140 cm and there is at least one accessible toilet.

Where venues are not fully accessible, the following pictograms are used:

-  Limited accessibility
maximum one step, ramp with more than 6% slope. Door width between 70 and 89 cm, lift depth between 90 and 139 cm
-  Poor accessibility numerous steps, door width less than 70 cm, lift depth less than 90 cm
-  No accessible toilet

Communications at events

-  With induction loop
-  German sign language
-  Live German subtitles for speeches
-  Events in simple German (Leichte Sprache)

Symbols indicating language and interpretation

-  In English
-  Interpretation into English
-  Interpretation into German
-  Interpretation is usually via headphones. Collect your headphones where you see a sign with this symbol

Please note: where there is no symbol the event is all in German.

Bible text for the opening services

2 Kings 18: 19

19 The Commander Rabshakeh said to them, 'Say to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you base this confidence of yours?'

Bible text for Bible study on Thursday

Job 2: 7–13

7 So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, 'Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.' 10 But he said to her, 'You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?' In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all these troubles that had come upon him, each of them set out from his home—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to go and console and comfort him. 12 When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept aloud; they tore their robes and threw dust in the air upon their heads. 13 They sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.

Ecumenical service on Corpus Christi

2 Corinthians 1: 8–11

8 We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of the affliction we experienced in Asia; for we were so utterly, unbearably crushed that we despaired of life itself. 9 Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death so that we would rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead.

10 He who rescued us from so deadly a peril will continue to rescue us; on him we have set our hope that he will rescue us again, 11 as you also join in helping us by your prayers, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted to us through the prayers of many.

Bible text for Bible study on Friday

Genesis 22: 1–19

1 After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' 2 He said, 'Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt-offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.' 3 So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt-offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. 4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. 5 Then Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.' 6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. 7 Isaac said to his father Abraham, 'Father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?' 8 Abraham said, 'God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son.' So the two of them walked on together. 9 When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. 10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. 11 But the angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' 12 He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.' 13 And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt-offering instead of his son. 14 So Abraham called that place 'The Lord will provide'; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of the Lord it shall be provided.' 15 The angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time from heaven, 16 and said, 'By myself I have sworn, says the Lord: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, 17 I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies, 18 and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.' 19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

Bible text for celebratory communion

Mark 16: 14–15

14 Later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were sitting at the table; and he upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. 15 And he said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation.'

Bible text for Bible study on Saturday

Luke 7: 36–50

36 One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. 37 And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. 38 She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—that she is a sinner.' 40 Jesus spoke up and said to him, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' 'Teacher,' he replied, 'speak.' 41 'A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 When they could not pay, he cancelled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?' 43 Simon answered, 'I suppose the one for whom he cancelled the greater debt.' And Jesus said to him, 'You have judged rightly.' 44 Then turning towards the woman, he said to Simon, 'Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. 45 You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. 46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.' 48 Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' 49 But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, 'Who is this who even forgives sins?' 50 And he said to the woman, 'Your faith has saved you; go in peace.'

Bible text for the closing service

Hebrews 10: 35–36

35 Do not, therefore, abandon that confidence of yours; it brings a great reward. 36 For you need endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

Kirchentag Psalm

Psalm 23A Psalm of David.

1 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;

3 he restores my soul.

He leads me in right paths
for his name's sake.

4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;

for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

Donations

Kirchentag is always expensive. Around a third of the cost is covered by participant fees, but the majority comes from public and church sponsors. The Kirchentag, however, also relies on the support of private individuals, non-profit organisations, companies and foundations. We are grateful for every donation. For German taxpayers, we can provide a certificate for donations of €20 or more. Simply quote your address in the payment reference. Thank you!

Payee:

Please use this account only for general donations. If you wish to pay participant fees, shop invoices and so on, please use the Kirchentag account shown on the relevant invoice.

Offerings

At the Kirchentag, collections will be taken at the large services and the celebratory communions. We are grateful for your generous support, in the collection or by bank transfer, of the following projects.

Opening Service

Refugee work of the Waldensians in Sicily

Centro Diaconale 'La Noce'

For many years, the Waldensian Church in Sicily has been supporting refugees in their congregation in Palermo. The diaconal centre 'La Noce' and the school of Italian as a foreign language at the University of Palermo (ItaStra) have been working together since 2011 to help immigrants integrate. They get to know Italian culture and the country by learning Italian, through events, exhibitions, drama groups, writing groups and other activities. Your donation to this project will go directly to the recipients in Italy.

Supporting Protestant schools in Syria and schools for Syrian refugees in Lebanon

Gustav-Adolf-Werk

Since 2013 Gustav-Adolf-Werk have, with church partners and private donors, been supporting Protestant communities in Syria. Gustav-Adolf-Werk contributes humanitarian aid, helps with the reconstruction of destroyed churches and supports communities who are trying to keep their schools open. This aid has an impact that goes beyond denominational or even religious borders. The partner organisations are the Union of Armenian Evangelical Churches in Syria and the Evangelical Church in Syria and Lebanon. 17 schools are being supported with over 6000 students.

Central Ecumenical Service

Lilalu, education and holiday programme for all children in Dortmund
Johanniter-Unfall-Hilfe

Lilalu provides a structured holiday for around 140 children and adolescents. It also helps integrate children from educationally and socially disadvantaged backgrounds, migrant and refugee children, and those living with disabilities. A big tent, the 'Big Teepee', in Dortmund provides a wide range of educational programmes including workshops, courses, shows and much more. Volunteers with a migrant background offer additional support to migrant and refugee children.

Waschcafé 'Saubere Sache'
Diakonisches Werk Dortmund und Lünen

The 'Welcome Europe' drop-in in Nordstadt, a district of Dortmund, helps new arrivals from the European Union who are living in particularly precarious circumstances. The people have often asked for shower and laundry facilities, so a Wash Café is planned. The project aims to offer people who are severely affected by poverty easy access to facilities to maintain their personal hygiene and preserve their human dignity.

Closing Service

Operation Moonbird

Sea-Watch

Sea-Watch is dedicated to emergency rescue at sea. Since 2015, the charity has helped save over 35,000 lives in the Mediterranean. People flee to Europe in the hope of safe passage at sea. Sea-Watch believes that rescue at sea is a humanitarian duty. The reconnaissance aircraft Moonbird makes a crucial contribution to this effort. It flies over the huge sea area to discover maritime emergencies. Since April 2017, this has helped to save the lives of thousands of people who otherwise would hardly have had a chance of survival.

Ethiopia: integration of refugees through good harvests

Bread for the World

People from South Sudan are fleeing civil war to the Gambela region in Ethiopia. There they encounter people who themselves fled years ago and have now returned home. The Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus helps both groups to plant vegetables, keep goats and live peacefully together. The Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus supports the families with a better harvest and new farming methods. Now, instead of one meal, they can eat three meals a day.

Opening Act of Remembrance

14.00–15.00 Listening to the past, acting and trusting in the present

A journey through time using scenic readings and moving pictures

In cooperation with: Mahn- und Gedenkstätte Steinwache

The Steinwache police prison in Dortmund is heavy with memories of National Socialism. A memorial has been placed at the front as a reminder of the crimes of the 'National Socialist Underground' (NSU), as well as of the murder of Mehmet Kubasik. Never forgetting, but learning, looking carefully, taking a stand. That is the heritage and the responsibility of the Kirchentag.

- Persecuted and persecutors from the Nazi era
- Remembering the victims of the NSU
- Right-wing extremism today

Evening of Encounters

18.30–22.30

Get involved!

Welcome to the 2019 Kirchentag in Dortmund! We are pleased that you have made your way to join us. We hope to get to know you as well as give you a few interesting and exciting days. We invite you to a varied, colourful evening: happy, looking forward and trusting. Take in the atmosphere and try something new. Enjoy some Currywurst, Pfefferpotthast, Pickert and other delicacies from Westphalia and Lippe. The musical accompaniment through the evening ranges from jazz to rock right through to world music. Games of trust help you to get involved. Between Kampstraße and the Wall, you are welcomed by church communities, facilities and initiatives of the Evangelical Church of Westphalia. You can look forward to a great variety of treats and real face-to-face encounters.

Market of Opportunities

Thursday, Friday, Saturday

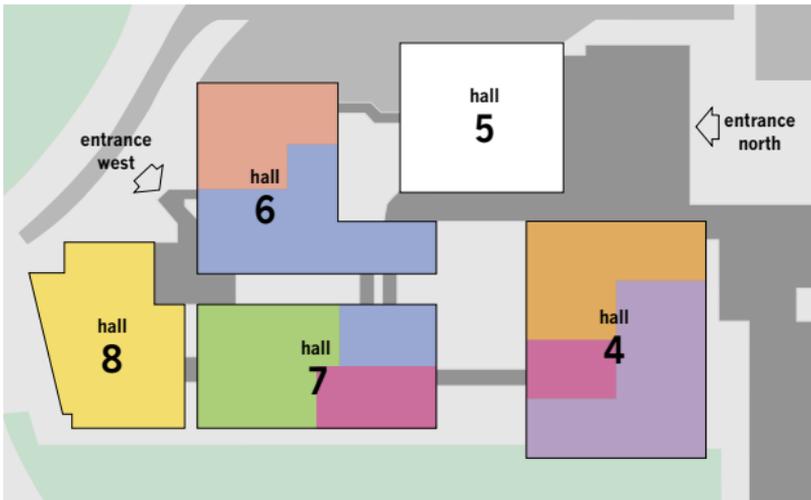

10.30–18.30

About 740 different associations, initiatives and volunteer groups, from church and wider society, will be presenting their work in four exhibition spaces. At the Market of Opportunities you can pick up new ideas, visions and alternatives which encourage change. Get inspiration, chat with people and make new contacts. Wander around and enjoy yourself!

The Market of Opportunities is organised around six themes plus the Diakonia Forum.

Topic area 1: Theology and spiritualityM Halle 8, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Topic area 2: Church and parishes*M Hallen 4 und 7, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Topic area 3: How we live and how we live together*M Halle 7, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Topic area 4: Society and education*M Hallen 6 und 7, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Topic area 5: Global challenges*M Halle 4, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Topic area 6: Peace, sustainability, economy*M Halle 4, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)Diakonia Forum*M Halle 6, Bereich Westfalahallen (634•E3)

You can also visit the Media mile market exhibition space in Halle 5. There are more market stands outside at A3 and A4 as well as in front of the exhibition centre square.

All of the areas are organised according to keywords and the different groups are listed alphabetically. Individual groups are listed first followed by groups sharing a stand. The stand number will help you find what you are looking for: the number at the beginning refers to the hall number (e.g. 4) and the letter which follows it indicates the aisle (e.g. F) and the final two numbers are the “house number” of the individual stands (e.g. 22).

More information about stands is available in German only in the index of the programme book, in the online programme database or in the Kirchentag app.

Other events at the Market of Opportunities

As well as what individual stands have to offer, there are small scale events and activities at market squares (MarktPlätze) in the different exhibition areas. The small stages offer a series of 45-minute programmes. MarketWorkshops lasting 90 minutes: for discussion and more concentrated work in themed tents within easy walking distance of the Market of Opportunities.

You can find details of both formats at the info booths in the Market of Opportunities and at the stands organising the different events. All of the info booths throughout the market will be happy to help you with further information as needed.

Exhibition in the Marketplace

At the exhibition in the marketplace, commercial initiatives present their work, for instance church sector service providers and sponsors of the Kirchentag.

Accessible Kirchentag

Accessibility to Kirchentag events

Pictograms in this programme booklet indicate accessibility of events and venues.

Induction loops: Around 1000 events will be provided with induction loops.

Toilets: Where suitable toilets are not available, the Kirchentag is providing its own toilets, including some with wheelchair access. Accessible toilets with assistance and equipment are available at the special Kirchentag Accessibility Centre and in the city centre at the public transport stop between Friedensplatz and Hansaplatz (Prinzenstraße). For the closing service they are in the Westfalenpark.

Seats and wheelchair spaces at events: Spaces are provided for wheelchair users at many of the main venues. Early arrival is essential to secure a place.

For two of the opening services, tickets for the disabled seating area can be ordered in advance by 22 May from the Kirchentag Office (Tel: +49 231 99768-510; Fax/SMS +49 231 99768-511; email: barrierefrei@kirchentag.de). The seating area offers a view of sign-language interpretation and is fitted with an induction loop.

Accessibility service points (Servicepunkte Kirchentag Barrierefrei) offer information and support services. The main service point is part of the Accessible Kirchentag Centre at the Westfalenhallen Exhibition Centre, with others situated around the city centre. But please note that for international visitors there will be a limited number of English speakers available to offer help!

Accessible Kirchentag Centre (Zentrum Kirchentag Barrierefrei)

This is the central meeting point for people living with disabilities. This is the place to go for help and assistance if needed. There is a café where you can relax and meet other people and there are activities for you to get involved in. There is also a rest area with couches and beds available for a short break.

Email: international@kirchentag.de

Help is also available during the Kirchentag at the International Centre.

Alcohol

No alcoholic drinks are served on site at any Kirchentag events.

App

With the Kirchentag App you can download the Kirchentag programme to your mobile device (in German only). As well as a standard text search facility for the whole programme, you can see what events are taking place in your vicinity. If you have already planned your own programme at home using the “Mein Kirchentag” feature on the website, this will automatically be transferred into the app.

Download it to mobile devices with iOS or Android for free at ▶ www.kirchentag.de/app.

Bicycles

Bicycle hire (Fahrradverleih)

Nextbike is offering Kirchentag visitors hire bikes free of charge for a period of up to two hours according to the Kirchentag terms and conditions. Around the clock, bicycles can be hired and returned to any of the hiring stations. Anyone wishing to hire a bicycle must register before the first hire either via the nextbike app, or online at ▶ www.kirchentag.de/metropolraduhr (free registration). If you wish to register via telephone (Tel: +49 30 69205046) there is a service charge of €3.

You need to accept the Kirchentag terms and conditions after registration by entering the coupon code 888288. The app will prompt you to enter the coupon code.

The Kirchentag conditions are:

Valid from 19 to 23 June 2019

Kirchentag participants will qualify for two hours hire for free. After that the charge will be €1 per 30 minutes, capped at €9 per day.

Up to four bicycles can be hired at the same time from a single bank account or card.

Bicycle parking

Additional parking for bicycles is available at selected venues. Please understand that for security reasons, bicycles cannot be taken with you into the event areas.

See the map for bicycle parking at the Westfalenhallen and the Signal Iduna Park.

Car parking

Please use public transport if you possibly can. If you are dependent on travelling by car then we recommend the following parking options. There are a number of fee-paying car parks all over the city. A map of car parks and Park & Ride facilities can be found at ▶ www.kirchentag.de/parken
There are a limited number of private car parking spaces available from Wednesday to Saturday at the Westfalenhallen and the Westfalenpark (areas D2 and C1) at a charge of €7 per day.

Cardboard box seats (Papphocker)

One of the features of Kirchentag is the cardboard box seating used in the halls. These are collapsible for taking away afterwards and they can be bought at the end of Saturday night at many of the venues for a suggested donation of €1. Please contact the local hall management (Hallenleitung) if you want to buy one.

They will also be available in larger quantities on Saturday evening in car park PA6 at Hall 3 with reductions for bulk buys.

Children

Childcare Centre (Kinderbetreuung)

Facilities for children aged 3 to 10 (play, painting, craft, story-telling) will be provided in cooperation with the St John's Youth Section. Children with disabilities can be looked after if this is arranged in advance. Children can stay for up to three hours per session.

Children need to understand German or to have someone with them who does.

Charge per session, including food: €5.00 per child plus €2.50 for additional brothers and sisters

Lost and found children

From Wednesday 19 June to Sunday 23 June, any lost children can be taken to any of the First Aid stations around the town – see First Aid stations.

From Thursday 20 June to Saturday 22 June lost children can also be taken to the child-care centre at Tent 17. This also serves as the central place for parents looking for lost children.

Tel: +49 231 44232374 (24 hours).

Closing service

The closing service with Holy Communion will take place on Sunday 23 June from 10.00 to 11.30 at two venues. One will be the family-friendly surroundings of the Westfalenpark on the grass in front of the Lake Stage (Seebühne) and the other the nearby football stadium at Signal Iduna Park. Entry is free. Tickets for the seating and standing areas in the stadium will be issued on the way in. Tickets for the disabled, for the brass band players and for English-speaking visitors will be issued in advance. There is no seating in the Westfalenpark, so you are advised to bring rugs to sit on.

English speaking visitors: Tickets will be available for a section in the Signal Iduna Park stadium giving a view of English-language subtitles on the screen. These will be available from the International Centre.

Gluten-free communion: is available at both services. At Signal Iduna Park this will be available on request at the entrances. At Westfalenpark, gluten-free bread will be available in designated places.

Arrival and departure: Because of the large numbers attending, you are advised to allow plenty of time and arrive early for the service. A pre-programme is provided from 9.00 onwards. You can also stay on afterwards for an after-programme, to reduce pressure on the exits. Both venues are within reach of public transport. There are some car parking spaces for people with disabilities, for which you will need to display a parking badge, available from the Accessible Kirchentag Centre. People with pushchairs and prams should go to Westfalenpark, as these cannot be taken into the Siguna Iduna Park. There is parking for buses at both venues, but you are advised not to come by car as parking is limited. Updates about the closing service in German will be on the website at ▶ www.kirchentag.de/schlussgottesdienst.

Luggage: No luggage or large rucksacks (30 litres or larger) are allowed in the venues (except musical instrument cases). Please leave them behind or use the left-luggage facilities. Even small rucksacks or carrier bags should be avoided if possible, to save time at the security checks at the entrance to the Signal Iduna Park. Glass bottles are not allowed.

Drinking water

Please use your own water bottles that you have brought with you (no glass, please). Tap water is the safest, greenest and cheapest source of refreshment. The Kirchentag provides free drinking water at many venues. Drinking water dispensers are marked with a drinking water symbol on the Kirchentag town map and also on the Kirchentag app.

This is not to be confused with the emergency ambulance service which can be reached on telephone 112

Environment

Kirchentag is one of the most environmentally-friendly mega-events of its kind and has for ten years met the criteria for the European EMAS certificate. All participants play their part in minimising the impact of Kirchentag on the environment, for example by using public transport, walking or cycling to venues, carefully separating rubbish, and eating at the organic food market and the Glass Restaurant.

First Aid service (Sanitätsdienst)

First Aid service at all the larger event venues is provided by the St John's Emergency Service (Johanniter-Unfallhilfe) in co-operation with the Arbeiter-Samariter-Bund, the German Red Cross, and the Maltese Aid Service.

In an emergency, call the ambulance on telephone number 112.

First Aid stations (Sanitätsstationen)

City centre

During the opening events on Wednesday evening there will be plenty of First Aid stations in the city centre. The exact venues are marked with a first-aid symbol on the special leaflet for the Evening of Encounters (Abend der Begegnung) which you will find in your programme pack. From Thursday to Saturday there will also be First Aid stations in the city centre which are marked with a first-aid symbol on the "City" section of the Kirchentag town plan.

The first-aid stations for the closing service in the Westfalenpark are marked with a symbol on the "Closing Service" section of your town plan.

Hall full (Halle überfüllt)

There will be times when the venues are full to capacity and people have to be turned away for health and safety reasons. Even if there appears to be some space left, please respect the Halle überfüllt signs and understand why you are turned away by the stewards. This is the only way to ensure the smooth and safe running of all the events at the Kirchentag. Thank you.

For many of the events you can get information about the spaces available before the start of the event on the Kirchentag app and the programme database, using the “traffic light” system:

Colour coding:

Grey – no information available

Green – plenty of places available

Yellow – a few places available

Red – no places left. We recommend you go to a different Kirchentag event.

A green or yellow traffic light does not guarantee that you will get a place; admittance is on a first come, first served basis. (see also – App)

Helpers and stewards

Kirchentag stewards can be recognised by their colourful scarves which say “ich helfe” (see introduction).

International Centre

The International Centre (IZ) is the meeting point for international participants and their hosts. The IZ team is available throughout the Kirchentag to offer help with any questions or problems in a variety of languages. There is also a cafe where you can take a break and meet up with other participants and with the members of the International Committee of the Kirchentag. Here you will also find the International Reception Desk (Teilnehmendenservice Ausland) where international visitors can get help with their registration, information about accommodation, and pick up their Kirchentag passes and programme folders if not already sent.

Other services offered at the IZ include volunteer language stewards who will go with you to events with no interpretation. They do not give a full translation but will give you a summary of what is said. Daily prayers offered in different languages, rooms available for a group discussion or meeting.

Posters and leaflets

Please note that there is a strict and total ban on putting up any kind of posters, notices or stickers at any of the Kirchentag sites. The cost of removing them is enormous and those responsible will be prosecuted. We ask for your understanding. Similarly, the unauthorised distribution of leaflets and advertising material is not permitted at Kirchentag sites.

Scarf

In keeping with tradition, there is a special scarf for visitors to the 37th German Protestant Kirchentag in Dortmund. The green scarf is made of 100% certified organic cotton, in accordance with the FairTrade standards laid down by the FairWear Foundation and the Sedex Members Ethical Trade Audit. It is printed with the Kirchentag slogan "What confidence is this" (in German). The scarf is distributed in all sorts of places, including the K-I-T-S stands, in exchange for a recommended donation of €4.

Security

The security of all participants is paramount at Kirchentag. Working together with the security and regulatory authorities, Kirchentag is putting in place a comprehensive security plan. This is constantly updated in accordance with the latest security situation. Please understand if safety precautions cause inconvenience and delay. Try and allow enough time for travel and then getting into particular events.

You can also play your own part by taking simple precautions:

protect yourself from the sun by staying in the shade or using a sunhat and drinking plenty of water (bring your own bottle – not glass); protect your valuables from pickpockets; follow the instructions of security officials; stay calm in threatening situations; pay attention to other participants as well as yourself.

Sexual assault

Kirchentag should be a safe place for all participants. We can all play our part by keeping our eyes and ears open in order to discourage potential offenders and help keep the Kirchentag free of violence. In threatening situations or where a criminal offence is committed, you should call the police (emergency Tel 110). Pastoral support and counselling is available (in German) at the Centre for Psychological Counselling (Beratung und Seelsorge). Or you can ask for help in English or in your own language at the International Centre.

Simple German (Leichte Sprache)

Not only people with learning difficulties find it easier to understand and participate in events in simplified language. International visitors with limited command of German may also be interested in some of these events, marked “Leichte Sprache” or simple German. For example, the opening service at the Hansaplatz will be in simple German. A version of the Bible texts in simple German can be found in the (German) programme book.

Smoking ban (Rauchverbot)

Smoking is not allowed in any of the venues where events are taking place, due to the fire risk and no-smoking legislation. The no-smoking rule also applies to communal accommodation in schools. This ban also includes e-cigarettes.

Song book

The song book included in your programme pack has been produced for the 2019 Kirchentag by a group of volunteers. The group of musicians chose 51 songs themselves and 75 more from a questionnaire to discover the ‘favourite’ songs of Kirchentag participants. The song book is a mixture of many Kirchentag classics, well-known hymns and lots of new songs, some of them from a song-writing workshop.
